

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

In re

IDEARC INC., et al.,
Debtors.

Chapter 11
Case No.:09-31828 (BJH)
(Jointly Administered)

REQUEST FOR TELEPHONIC APPEARANCE

To the Honorable Chief Judge Barbara J. Houser, and her Courtroom Deputy Ms. Viola Salcido-Jozovich:

I, Scott McMillan, request to appear by telephone for the hearings that are scheduled to take place in the Idearc case as follows:

1. June 4, 2009, at 1:15 p.m. [Motion to assume operating agreements]
2. June 23, 2009, at 2:30 p.m. [Disclosure Statement Hearing]

I represent Sean Ryan, an employee in California that holds a judgment against the Debtor and Verizon Directories Sales-West, Inc., arising from its failure to pay his wages and for converting his money. I also represent my law firm, The McMillan Law Firm, APC, which is owed money for its court ordered attorneys fees.

I am in California, and unable to appear in person.

The court granted my prior request to appear pro hac vice.

As to the June 4, 2009 hearing, I filed an objection to the motion to assume the operating agreements, and have objected to the latest declarations submitted by the Debtor's witnesses on May 20, 2009, which I understand will be at issue in this hearing.

As to the June 23, 2009 hearing on the adequacy of the disclosure statement, I will be filing an objection to the disclosure statements, coupled with evidence to demonstrate that the Debtor has not fully disclosed the material issues facing the Debtor and a successful restructuring, and to the extent that I am unable to appear in person — I wish to appear telephonically.
